

The image features the Texas Tech University logo at the top left, consisting of a red L-shaped graphic followed by the text "TEXAS TECH™" in a bold, black, sans-serif font. The background is a photograph of a university campus during autumn, showing a central walkway lined with trees in shades of yellow and orange, leading towards a large, classical-style building. In the foreground, there are several stone pillars and a central stone structure. The top right corner has a red geometric pattern of overlapping lines.
